Fear for your life as you hide from their law.
Deep in your heart you know youÂ're about to die.

Fight for your life, it all belongs to you.
You must engage in war, if you want to live.

Play the game you can not win,
No one wins they only die.
Die you will if you do play,
So why play if you canÂ't win.

Filled with rage, as they seek the death of you.
Take your last breath, realize itÂ's the end of you.

Free at last you feel no pain.
You only see the tears of the ones
you left behind.

Play the game you can not win,
No one wins they only die.
Die you will if you do play,
So why play if you canÂ't win.

Play the game you can not win,
No one wins they only die.
Die you will if you do play,
So why play if you canÂ't win.
