A little boy on the playground is fighting with his tears Discouraged to play with other kids 'cause his mind is full of fears

It was one night in the bathroom
And his voice reflected by the walls
The only witness was a mirror
But where were the laws

Every day he stood the abuse
There's no way out
Prayin' to devil with only six year
There's no way out

In front of this house he stands now and the dampness in his eyes

He never want to go in this house again rather he want to die

It was one night in the bathroom
And his voice reflected by the walls
The only witness was a mirror
But where were the laws

Every day he stood the abuse
There's no way out
Prayin' to devil with only six year
There's no way out

Twenty-three years later on the same place again
A memory of a destiny which no one can understand
It was one night in the bathroom
And his voice reflected by the walls
The only witness was a mirror
But where were the laws

Every day he stood the abuse
There's no way out
Prayin' to devil with only six year
There's no way out

There's no way out
There's no way out
There's no way out
