"Victim Of My Life"

A dream of hope and a sea of strife
Bring me back into a better life
I'm not involved by cure
But I'm innocent for sure

I'm a victim of my life

Why we'll die
In a land of broken dreams
Where our hearts are grown so cold
Why we'll die
In a land of broken dreams
Where our souls get burned so down

In a world of so much suffer
Everybody fights against each other
On the lookout for harmony
I've been touched by self-pity

I'm a victim of my life

Why we'll die
In a land of broken dreams
Where our hearts are grown so cold
Why we'll die
In a land of broken dreams
Where our souls get burned so down
