I wish there was a big room somewhere
And they kept all the time in there
All the time that got away somehow
And I wish there was a way I could get it back now
Startin' right at the day
When you looked at me that way
The way you smiled when you said my name
I could see my life would never be the same
Chorus
And I knew nothing I could say or do
Would come close to thankin' you for your love
And I could try for the rest of my life
But that wouldn't be half enough
Through all the crazy years
I turned around and you were here
Sweeter than my wildest dreams
Yeah, you showed me what true love means
(Repeat Chorus Twice)
And I could try for the rest of my life
but that wouldn't be half enough
Half enough, half enough, wouldn't be half enough (repeat/fade)
