I've in one of those moods and it's just no good

Nothing I want to talk about

I just need for you to take me out

And do the town

Turn it upside down

I need one of those nights tonight

Wanna go left when the world goes right

Lost my appetite for this side of midnight

Wanna burn up those neon lights

Past the point of Fahrenheit

I wanna feel my heart ignite while you hold me tight

I need one of those nights tonight

Cause I've had one of those days today

I've got one of those jobs and I've had enough

You better walk me out this door

Before I run to Singapore

Just show me how to love me now

I need one of those nights tonight

Lost my appetite for this side of midnight

Wanna burn up those neon lights

Past the point of Fahrenheit

I wanna feel my heart ignite while you hold me tight

I need one of those nights tonight

Cause I've had one of those days today

I need one of those nights...

I've had one of those days
