Hear no voice, no choice
To sing "love will tear us apart"
(Silent of the head)
This perfume
It smells of you
Steady changes
I will keep you

And it feels like it's rational to not find you (whoa
whoa whoa)
And it feels like I cannot ever find you (whoa)
You need to see
That this will never be
And I know this world will never end

Everyday it's a shame
To say we were living a lie
(Silent of the head)
Walk the park of echoes
Friendly feelings pierce me deep in my heart (heart)

And it feels like it's rational to not find you (whoa
whoa whoa)
And it feels like I cannot ever find you (whoa)
You need to see
That this will never be
And I know this world will never end

And it feels
And it feels
And it feels
And it feels...

And it feels like it's rational to not find you (whoa
whoa whoa)
And it feels like I cannot ever find you (whoa)
You need to see
That this will never be
And I know this world will never end
