Still I haven't found you
Or do I have to try?
Chances might be coming
And chances have gone by
Am I living in the future?
Cause the present I deny
Am I slightly going crazy?
Will I have you here with me?

And I'd be sharing your hopes and fears
I'd be crying your silent tears
Give my pain and my joy for you
Give my time that's what I can do
Change your world into paradise
Joined in life til we're old and wise
I'd give back what you'd give to me
Watch you sleep til the light of day

When will you walk through that door
That I've opened long before
Here I am wait and see
Keep my wishes here with me
