They laugh at me at my life.
My life as a duck;
But I don't get worked up.
It's my life as a duck.

You may think this is funny;
You may think I had bad luck;
Or did you think that I was stuck,
In my life as a duck?

For all my life I've tried to hide
the animal in me
Now it's time to open up and breathe
And breathe

I don't know where I'm going
Or from which place I have come.
But as long as I'm floating
The don't can be undone

You must be thinking 'what is he on?'
But things are looking up
I've started to believe in living
My life as a duck

For all my life I've tried to hide
the animal in me
Now it's time to open up and breathe
And breathe

So listen!

I know everything about you
Your father was a duck
(x4)
For all my life...
