Forgive my sins father I will always obey your wish is my command
Whatever you say I will never betray you I will cooperate In the end you must save me before it is too late In the court of crimson king the key will let me in] Seven years of wisdom and seven years of pain seven keys to kingdom
And seven gates to hell my soul is leaving for the astral sky
I'm going through some chances I am paralysed Before the king of twilight in for the crimson court I am a part of the order
I am reborn what a pleasure to be here what a pleasure to die
Whole my body moulding I am still alive
