I couldn't figure
You can choose tonight
And the truth to be tempted

I couldn't save it
Tried to grip it
While all of us still inside

I keep burning
I try to figure out
Which way this is turning

My head is spinning
Needs to unwind

Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe it's loves mistaken
Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe it's loves mistaken

Overflowing
All the words
Blocked in silent moment
I think you know it
Cause you got me
Starting to realize
I'm barely moving
Try to figure out
Which way to get through this

My head is spinning
Needs to unwind

Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe it's loves mistaken

Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe it's loves mistaken

Now I can see it right darkness
Part over undefined
You used to stand between
You use to belong to me
But that was so long ago

Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe it's loves mistaken

Maybe our hearts just don't belong
To want another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
