Iâ€™ve laid awake in bed so many nights,
wondering who would tell me, whatâ€™s wrong or right
-well, itâ€™ surely ainâ€™t you!

I see the disappointment in my momâ€™s eyes,
theyâ€™re sad and empty, but she keeps telling herself
lies â€™bout her perfect life, perfectly organised,
but a 40-hour-work week is not my meaning of life.

This is not free choice- this is fuck!
I have the right to reproduce YOUR opinions!
I have the right to choose the brand of my clothes
I have the right to look uniformly like you smugs!

Mass media tell me what to do
and to think , but yours it not MY truth!
See, the governments use police brutality
to make us understand the system of conformity!

Still Iâ€™ve got no idea, what to do with my life, but Iâ€™d rather be seen as a useless, lazy loser than being a remote-controlled living dead like you!
