Have you ever been alone have they ever don't understand you believe you can make it better hope than believe it Till someday I'm gonna leave it only memories of me you laugh but believe me I'm dying can you see Now that all my hopes are gone I don't want to believe no more they say after the rain comes sun but someone took the light of my one I stay now alive but my dream is dead what else can I expect than my punishment Patience
