"To Emily, Whenever I May Find Her"

What a dream last night dressed in orgundy clothed in crinaline of smoky burgundy softer than the rain

I wandered empty streets down past the shop displays I heard cathedral bells drifting down the alleyways, as I walked on and when you ran to me your, cheeks flushed with the night we walked through frozen fields of juniper and lamplight I held your hand

And when I awoke and saw you warm and near I kissed your honey hair with my grateful tears oh I love you girl, I love you
