I collapse
In silence I will die
Nothin' left
But the flesh in which I hide

My heart has stopped, but my senses remain,
My sight yet blurred, sees my blooded stains,
Days will pass before they find my corpse
Resting here in shadows, as they fall
Few will be at my funeral
Disturbed earth my memorial
No stone as it's Inscriptiوني would die
Uneven ground
Marks where I die

solo: Ogawa

As you walk upon my unmarked grave
I will lie gazing up at you
My empty eyes see nothing
But remember the pain
