Did you notice that you're taking a few steps back?
Call it quits, give it up or get on track.
Every lie that you've ever told will fal to pieces and soon enough will unfold.
Unfold.

Find out the way this works.
Don't doubt what you have heard.
Everything you know might come undone.
Find out the way this works.
Don't doubt what you have heard.
Everything you know might come undone.

Did you notice that you're losing all your friends?
Replacing them with another worthless trend.
And now I can't sit back and let you lose everything that means the most to you.
To you.

Find out the way this works.
Don't doubt what you have heard.
Everything you know might come undone.
Find out the way this works.
Don't doubt what you have heard.
Everything you know might come undone.

Everything, everything makes me want to leave.
Everything, everything makes me want to leave.
