Bliss and ignorant...

Envy breaks me down
I sigh without a sound
He seems to me to be the best man all around
But with the voices in my head
And the roses in your bed
They don't seem to compromise the lies he fed to you
So eat up

The spectrum of the rainbow shines clear to me tonight
You never show your true colors
And if the latter part is true
Then I am through with you
So, won't you let me be?
Bliss and ignorant

Why won't you let me be?
