Keep your eyes open!

If they jump, would you follow?
If they pour, would you swallow their poison?

What's wrong with our lives today?
It's like we were born to emulate
What's wrong with the way we bleed?
My heart doesn't break for your sake

You! Play!
And you're so fake
Look like me, be like me, become me
Don't! Say!
A single thing
The children are waiting

So they jump and you follow
So they pour and you swallow their poison

I wish you would go away
Just one more thing I would love to say
You act like it's all a game
Close your eyes
I don't see how you sleep

On me!
Keep your eyes open!
On me!
Keep your eyes!
