

Glorious Unseen "All Around"

Visit "All Around" on MotoLyrics.com

When my world is caving in / when my hopes are wearing thin / when Iâ€™m choking in my sin - Lord, you meet me here. When all around is crashing down, I find myself alive in you. Holy one, renew. When all around is crashing down, I find my spirit crying out. Holy one, consume. When I listen to the fear / when I feel my end is near / when all hope has disappeared - Lord, you meet me here. Will you pour out again? God of mercy, here I am reaching out to you - reaching out for a breakthrough. Father, hear my cry of desperation once again. I look into your eyes - and know a love that has no end.
