What is the meaning of grace; when it speaks to my darkest place? Why do I always feel like I'm your disgrace? I'm sick of saving face. When I feel so heavyhearted, I know you're taking me back! When you take me as I am; it's like the sunlight gracing the land. When I feel heavyhearted - please, come and take my hand. I'm heavyhearted again. Where is the message of hope; when I'm sick and I'm all alone? Why do I listen to doubt? Why do I shut you out? You're what I need the most. Though I feel so heavyhearted, I know you're taking me back! It's so crazy - how you sustain me! When I am down in the dirt - you come and claim me! Father, your burden is light. I need your love tonight. I'm reaching out to you.
