Lord, we cry, meet us here.
Change our hearts, bring us near.
We come to this place God, and offer up our hearts.
We're holding to Your promise that You'll meet us where we are.
We come broken and sinful yet still You call our names.

And Your glory surrounds us and brings us to our knees.

Lord we cry, will You meet us here?
Lord, we bow in Your love.
Saved by grace, cleansed in blood.
As we're calling on Your name,
Come and meet us here,
As we're falling on our knees before You,
Reaching out for holy love.
We're on our knees before You, Father meet us here.
Spirit meet us here.
