Resurrect the evening, brought it back as it filled in Filled in something missing
Something never there to begin
You were so distraught
Had never been in love
Guess you learned your lesson
Don't starve a poor boy

You could not help yourself from crying
The entire night
It's painful when you realise your lives are intertwined
It's helped me somewhat

Well, I'll be yours forever
Just tell me when to start
There are just a few place
That I'll need to stop
Some along the way, some in the midst of
In the midst of our eternal love

And you could not help yourself from crying
The entire night
It's painful when you realise your lives are intertwined
It's helped me somewhat
It's helped me somewhat

Why lie?
The truth's easy to find in time
Forgive me of this crime
It's alright
I swear I'll never, swear I'll never
Swear I'll never do this again

Why lie?
The truth's easy to find in time
Forgive me of this crime
It's good night
I don't even, I don't even
I don't even know her name
