"Do You Remember"

say to her
can you remember
the first time we met
don't you remember the first caress

waiting there
standing alone
on the corner of the night can you remember the first time

but if you wait,
and if you wait
i will cross the ocean
i will be with you soon

the night that you left scanning the crowd
out in the square

i will take your hand
and you'll understand
and if you wait,
i will be with you soon,
I'll cross the ocean blue

do you remember,do you remember

and if you wait,
i will come the night
and I'll be by your side
i will be with you
tell me do you remember,
if you don't remember,
you will remember soon
