Jesus invented crunk, Jesus invented crunk, Jesus invented crunk!

Everybody repping Jesus throw a fist up, And watch how many demons in a minute we can twist up, Stomp Satan through the earth when Jesus lift up, Lion of Judah looking for Lucifer to rip him up, Dispatching angels to my side ride for the truth, Drive-byes on hell gates screaming Jesus side, Holy Ghost blowing holes in the enemy I chop em down with the word blood crush the whole vicinity, Special ops infiltrating demonic facilities pray it to the ground ready to go another round, And its a battle to the death blessed with eternal life crucifying the flesh Keep a lock on Lucifer like Iâ'm flying a jet, Equipped for the dog fight Satan got a mean bark but he can't bite, He thought he had a lock on my faith, But I swole up and broke his face I bet you now he know his place.

Snatch this back from Satan, this music belong to US, and Jesus invented cruck , so demons are getting rush, get toss up in the shy, as enemies bout to die, I blow a head off a demon, Satan gotta burn in fry, toss him back in hell, slam him in a cell, push him off a bridge, burn his body until pale, man you think you know him, man you think you know him, Jesus bout show em, how his cruck is spilling over, caz my body's growing and the holy spirits flowing, talk and foreign tongue as my God is steady glowing, he's crazy man, and I can't tell why, a lot of rage, and I can't tell a lie, I'm chasing them with a scope, I'm pushing on evil folks, they hanging on windows, I thought I should let you know, they running on tight ropes, and demons about to quote, that Jesus invented cruck!

Jesus invented crunk, Jesus invented crunk, when Jesus be getting crunk, demons be getting stomped. I'm pumped ready to punk iniquities getting dumped, bible tucked ready to rump Satan so what you want. My praise an instrument of war live by the sword, worship imbedded inside of my soul praising the Lord. Caz Satan is gone, victory is in me the remedy has been given living inside of repentance I'm strong. Now move for Christ if he delivered you in the valley, everybody hold you bible up this is the rally. I tally the score, Satan never winning cause sins blemished never seen through Christ blood we made clean. New creations through faith we can't been the same thing, unity in the spirit allowing the same dream. Vain lies deceit rebuking what's mainstream, the main thing is praising after we made clean cause.
