What you consume, is your true protest.
Each dollar you spend, supports what you detest.
Martyr, for your cause X(3)
You fail to see your flaws.
This is not your war. X(3)

But do you know, what you claim to stand for.
You're really not so free from blame. X(2)

I see no wrong, in taking a stand.
But do you really know for what you stand? You cannot claim to resist, and walk this chosen path.
When you are unaware, and the same as those you blame.

You're not a martyr, you cannot be the one. X(4)
