The war is over all that's failed
Bleeding sky and earth that's shelled
Stand & wonder at the waste
For reasons that have now escaped

Spiral killer
Birds of war
Grounding out
Count the dead to score
Fires fall fast
Downward spiral to a final blast
No one believes the earth will live to see
A hundred more years for sure

Now the sun is waking up and the dusk is breaking up
Hellish cause leaves purpose void
Pursue suburban, paranoid shock from shelling
Constant fear
Peace falls in like a bleeding tear
What now for society
War's a drunk general's anti-sobriety
Battle lines re-drawn
Boredom brings it on
Grab your guns
War's begun...
