“All We Are Is Broken”

Second Chances Never Fail EP

All we are is broken, yet Iâ€™m hoping that Iâ€™ll find an answer
And it haunts me but Iâ€™ll keep on searching Although we try to escape from the silence the violence Iâ€™ve been lonely, but the thing that keeps me feeling Is a melody and a memory
And it repeats itself, but it keeps me singing

Oh, why did we wait this long to find a reason to the thing that we call love?
Oh if I wouldâ€™ve known to stay on my own There's nothing better than this
There's nothing better than home
Better than home

So keep on wishing now baby
If you want there's an easy solution Grab my hand and Iâ€™ll give you direction Take a shot close your eyes, baby count to four thereâ€™s no pain anymore Iâ€™ve been hopeless but the strength that keeps me feeling
Is a photograph with your autograph written in blue ink and it keeps me thinking

Oh, why did we wait this long to find a reason to the
thing that we call love?
Oh, if I wouldâ€™ve known to stay on my own
There's nothing better than this
There's nothing better than home
(Repeat)
