You are the strength in me
You are all I need
Just to get by I don't need anything but You
Burn me alive inside
Forgive my stupid pride
Take away my desire
Take it away from me
Every time I stumble You rescue me
How could I forget
Your love is all I need
When everything around me seems to shatter
You bring out the best in me
You are the hope in me
You are the drug I need
Just to get by I don't want anything but You
Rebuild the hope inside
Forgive my stupid lies
Bend me, break me, shake me up inside
Every time I stumble You rescue me
How could I forget
Your love is all I need
When everything around me seems to shatter
You bring out the best in me
Your love is what I need
When everything around me seems to break
Your love is all I need
When I seem to sink beneath the waves
Every time I stumble You rescue me
How could I forget
Your love is all I need
When everything around me seems to shatter
You bring out the best in me
