You gotta leave home
The pressures that you face are too great
You're ready to roam
The roads you'll choose to take find heartbreak

Finding your own way
Learn from my mistakes

Your heart is a journey that's just begun
It's hard when it's broken
The paths that I've wandered are overgrown
So try to avoid them
You'll find it, oh I know you'll find it
You're starting to show I know you're ready
Finding your own way

I know you can't wait
You'll find out who you are with each scar
You'll make your escape
And when you've gone too far meet me halfway

Finding your own way
Learn from my mistakes

Your heart is a journey that's just begun
It's hard when it's broken
The paths that I've wandered are overgrown
So try to avoid them
You'll find it, oh I know you'll find it
You're starting to show I know you're ready
Finding your own way

The space and the miles between us
So much is unspoken
The stories we're making are battles won
Let my wrongs guide you

Finding your own way
Learn from my mistakes

The paths that I've wandered are overgrown

So try to avoid them
(Finding your own way)
