Though your heart and your soul are giving out
When there's nothing left that's real
And everything is broken

Though the weight of the world tries to drag you down
There is hope inside you now
So don't give up

Cause love never fails you, yeah
His love never fails you

Holding onto your scars like souvenirs
When the hurt is all you feel
And the questions leave you speechless

He can make all the heartache disappear
See that He is all you need
And He's picking up the pieces

Cause love never fails you, yeah
His love never fails you, yeah
Don't give up on a love so close
Don't let go
Cause love never fails you, yeah

Oh, can't you see it coming?
Brighter days on the horizon
[repeat]

Don't give up hope on love so close
Your heart is never on its own
