Love, love
Love, love

This is a crime scene, the clues are all here
Let's search for the cause
Tell-tale signs of a struggle somehow
You let down your guard
But don't you dare give up

This is a last stand
A cry for a comeback
The future is still untold
Your story isn't written in stone
Fight your indifference
This is resistance
It's time to live in power and love

Love, love
It's time to live in power and love
Love, love
It's time to live in power and...

The mighty have fallen but you are still here
So learn where they lacked
The answers will come as we search for the spark
A counter attack
But don't you dare give up

This is a last stand
A cry for a comeback
The future is still untold
Your story isn't written in stone
Fight your indifference
This is resistance
It's time to live in power and love

Love, love
It's time to live in power and love
Love, love
It's time to live in power and...

Life is what you make it
Time is now so take it

This is a last stand
A cry for a comeback
Your story isn't written in stone
Fight your indifference
This is resistance
It's time to live in power and love
A cry for a comeback
The future is still untold
Your story isn't written in stone
Fight your indifference
This is resistance

Love, love
Love, love
