"When The Night Is Over"

Visit "When The Night Is Over" on MotoLyrics.com

The night is closing in I hear the beating wings He's nearer than before - He's coming to get me I have no way to see if this is real or dream My thoughts are blurred and I can find no reason yet he has opened the door he's from the other side From him I cannot hide his will commands my actions soon I will abide Take Me tonight I am yours

When the Night is over I will feel no sorrow When tomorrow's come When the night is over I will feel no sorrow I will miss no one

When the night is over I will be gone

They think I've lost my mind lost my mind but really they are blind
They cannot see that he's as real as real can be
He stands for truth in my lie

His black wings beckon to me his eyes they shine with glee the blade is shining too and soon I will be free This life is slowly leaving the knife unlocks the door and when my lungs stop breathing
