Make an impact
Put your ears to the floor
Hear the words we don't speak anymore
Can you hear them?
As we were before
Reminisce, I
Don't find it hard to differ
Who we are now and who we once were
But does it still hurt?

Does it still?

You forgot
Your share of pictures and books
I'm aware without ever having looked
Fen Chui relapse
What was it you took?

I've taken up coffee
And I've been drinking
My friends can't stop me
And I can't stop thinking
I'm still thinking
About what could've been

Tell me, does it still hurt?

Make and impact
Put your ears to the floor
Hear the words we don't speak anymore
Can you hear them?

If so
Tell me
