hey little pretty with the tattoo'd skin,
the past is repeatin' yeah it's gonna begin
i said hey little pretty with the tattoo'd skin,
the past is repeatin' yeah it's gonna begin
all you little kids that love the rock n' roll,
you sure got the style but you ain't got the soul!
you sure got the style but you ain't got the soul!
you sure got the style but you ain't got the soul!

come on get over it!
come on get into it!
come on get over it!
come on get into it!

hey little baby with your studded belt,
when you hear the music right it's gonna make you melt
i said all you little kids that love the rock n' roll,
you sure got the style but you ain't got the soul!

come on get over it!
come on get into it!
come on get over it!
come on get into it!
come on get over it!
come on get into it!
It starts right now!
Well let's go!
1-2-3!
Come on let's go!
It's a rock n roll revolution!
It's a rock n roll evolution!
Come on let's go!

Sweet little honey with your hair cut right,
when you get the sonic beat you're gonna see the light
I said all you little kids that love the rock n' roll,
all you little kids that love the rock n' roll,
all you little kids that love the rock n' roll,
you sure got the style but you ain't got the soul!

come on get over it!
come on get into it!
come on get over it!
come on get into it!
come on get over it!
come on get into it!
It starts right now!
