Intro

Yo Zala... Uh!
Just pass the paper, pass the pen too yo,
Need to get a few things off my chest,
Lifestyle,
Uh huh!
Come on, feel me.
Uh huh, yea, uh!

Verse 1

Straight off the block, no hesitation,
Cry Nation, my nation,
My songs a definition of the hard times I'm facin,
My flow's a nightmare like Freddy, cut's like Jason,
Forbidden like Satan,
Not even hell can maintain it,
Not even heaven can explain it,
A gift from god,
Keep a eye on the road I trod,
Like Moses I throw my rod,
"Beanie Sigel - Feel It In The Air"... Me and my boys used to vibe to it,
Now I rap I spit some rhymes to it,
Some studious lines to it,
I know the hardship in life cuz I been through it,
Watched and observed how them pimps do it,
Drown their pain and sorrow in da pink fluid,
If rap was a kingdom, god damn I'm da king to it,
Come on.

Chorus

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,
Cuz my flow is strong.

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,

Cuz my flow is strong.

Verse 2

I'm trying to get a scholarship to go to college,
Cuz Nas once said power is knowledge,
Life is so savage,
Ready to die for the company I established,
Sometimes I sit in the dark, suicidal thoughts,
Felt like someone ran a dagger through my heart,
Just need someone to talk to,
Not cuz they say I'm a thug, I got a heart too,
Life is like a jungle, I never stopped... I just walked through,
I'm not crazy,
It's just my rap attracts ladies,
Back when I was hustling they forsake me,
Now they call me their baby,
I don't need your love now, I need it back then,
Cuz I'm a thug now, with a chrome Mack 10,
Holla at Trish for me, one the realest girls I know, remain true till the end.

Chorus

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,
Cuz my flow is strong.

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,
Cuz my flow is strong.

Verse 3

I'm only seventeen,
I got the flow that you never seen,
Took a stab in my face but I never scream,
I know I'm gonna soon die,
Just burn my body and sprinkle my ashes in the blue
sky,
If I could I'd flew from the earth like a missile,
Cuz my friends love for me is artificial,
It's not real, I can't feel it,
That's the type of pain I have to deal wit,
No offense, but how many types of love you know,
You said you love me but I ain't seen this type of love before,
Guess I just gotta wait for ya love to grow,

So I put a smile on my face,
Try and smile my problems away,
Cuz it seems like the only way,
The kid makes sunshine on a rainy day,
Still my dreams fade away,
God damn! I got so much to say.

Chorus

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,
Cuz my flow is strong.

When I'm feeling spirit broken, I just play my song,
When I'm feeling heartbroken, I just play my song,
I'm wishing and hoping, the radio would play my song,
Cuz my flow is strong.

Outro

Seems like mi have fi do everything mi self,
Spit rhymes, produce mi own music,
Just inna di studio ah finish up a mixtape then start record ah album,
But meanwhile just look out fi Zala,
Produce some crazy tracks fi him,
Mi beats crazy yo,
Lifestyle!
Just watch out fi Zala,
Cry Nation records,
I'm out.
