Kill Me! Whut! Mutha Facku! Murder Murder!
Whut! I can't wait to die! Please Murder my mother fuckin' ass off!
Bring It! Cause I'm Goin To Shangri-La have you ever tried, to get the fuck up your hole, fall right back inside, once again denied have you ever seen, people turn into thy devil, over money green, Tell me what it means have you even been, to thy wicked part of town and, would you go again, they don't want you in Would you follow me, If i knew where it rains diamonds,

no more poverty, as clean as we can be, yeah

It rains diamonds nightly, in my Shangri-La lit brightly, who could miss this so inviting?
Come stand mountain top and yell!

Somebody Stab my face or something! Kill Me!
What thy fuck a ninja gotta do around here to get his dead on?

do you like to drink, would you fuck a girl thy day you met her,
what you think, on thy kitchen sink Dont you fire up, does this mean you wasted your life your're completely fucked? I would differ some.
holf your hatchet high, 'cause were gonna need'em when there's,
fire in the sky, together we will die i can promise this, in my Shangri-La you'll have, eternal happiness,
diamonds in the miss

It rains diamonds mightly, in my Shangri-La lit brightly, who could miss this so inviting?
Come stand mountain top and yell!

Diamonds drift upon thy mist of forgetfull ness, bringing a peace untold, as i fade away to become what my eyes see,

seeing into thy eternity of Shangri-La

It rains diamonds mightly, in my Shangri-La lit brightly, who could miss this so inviting?
Come stand mountain top and yell!

It rains diamonds mightly, in my Shangri-La lit brightly,
who could miss this so inviting?
Come stand mountain top and yell!

It rains diamonds mightly, in my Shangri-La lit brightly,
who could miss this so inviting?
Come stand mountain top and yell!
