Just a short elevator down
And I really do not care
Looking out the window here
'Cause I see that it's so far below me now
And I see you looking there
Taking in the big view here
45 floors are so far below us now
Well, it's so far below me now
It's just a short elevator down
And as quickly as you go up
It just comes back down
I can see that it's so far below me now
Yes, those city lights they glare
Shining through the window here
I can see the traffic far below me now
And the colors are so red
In the headlights sit and stare
I can see that it's all far below me now
It's so far below me now
Just a short elevator down
And as quickly it goes up

It just comes back down

I can see that it's so far below me now

It's so far below me now

It's so far below me now

It's so far below me now

It is so far below me
