"Armour Of Gods"

My heart is now filled with anger
Knowing that you were lost
Sailing for the last time
Enchanted with flames - you're coming home

Leaving our world
For the place we know
Valhalla

The dawn has spoke
We standing here again
To fight for your honor
With powers the gods have sent

The dragons are fighting
Burning the sky
The archer's are aiming
For you to die
Our magic is glowing
An armour of light
- In victorious night

The battlefield sounds of sadness
We lost so many men
Victory's taste is better
But we all know - where to sail
