Turn the night into day
The dark will be gone
But the lies will all stay

Oh no matter how your turning
The tides of war
In these days

Confusion rules
Lost in a haze
Oh it really makes me wonder

Hearts full of pain
Tears make heavy rain
Look out
You may drown

Searching for the key
And sometimes it's so hard to be

We sail along the sea
And we are fighting to be free

If today is the end
Noone would laugh
Nor comprehend

Oh Mother Earth I love you
There's something wrong
Please help us find the light

With strong true faith
We'll gain control
Oh I hope you hear our prayers
