"Dry Bones"

Her mirror contains no mercy in what it shows
A broken, shattered image is all she knows
A bed of wilted roses is all she sees
Her satin heart is tearing, she cannot breathe

Her faith has all but faded, a hope of change
Her world falls around her, it hides her screams
Rejected, tormented, her mind is ever-captive
Darkness is bent on stealing her will to live

Chorus:
Breathe life, Breathe life
Into these dry, and empty bones
Yeah, breathe life, breathe life
Into these dry, and empty bones

Her strength is slowly waning from the years of pain
Her vision's dark and shaded in clouds of shame
Dull jaded, frustrated,
She feels she's old and far away
Her soul is reaching out for her light of day

Chorus:
Breathe life, breathe life
Into these dry, and empty bones
Yeah, breathe life, breathe life
Into these dry, and empty bones
