She's all alone in the night
With no one to hear her cry
But I will sing her lullaby

If I could walk into her life
And hold her every time she cried
I would, I would
If I could steal the pain she feels
Allow her crippled heart to heal,
I would, I would

Chorus:
She's all alone in the night
With no one to hear her cry
But I will sing her lullaby
She's all alone in the night
With no one to see her smile
But I will sing her lullaby

If I could answer all her prayers
Show her someone really cares
I would, I would
If I could wrap her in my arms
Far away from any harm
I would, I would

Chorus:
She's all alone in the night
With no one to hear her cry
But I will sing her lullaby
She's all alone in the night
With no one to see her smile
But I will sing her lullaby

Bridge (2x):
And open up the sky
In the middle of the night
And warm the wound inside
With Heaven's lullaby

Chorus:
She's all alone in the night

With no one to hear her cry
But I will sing her lullaby
She's all alone in the night
With no one to see her smile
But I will sing her lullaby

I sing tonight, her lullaby
And I sing tonight, her lullaby
And I sing tonight, her lullaby
And I sing tonight, her lullaby
