When I'm falling, and cannot stand
You lift me up, you take my hand
When I'm drowning, and cannot breathe
You hear my cry, and rescue me

Bridge:

'Cause I've been beaten and bleeding on the ground
My heart is broken, silence my only sound.
I've been shouting but no one hears my screams.
If you can hear me, then set me free.

Chorus:

'Cause I need a hero that can save my life.
Take me from the darkness, bring me back into the light
'Cause you are that savior who can see right through me
And make your way into my heart

And When I'm running, tryin' to flee
You're just right after, and capture me.
When I cry out, and I'm in need
You take me in, under your wings.

Bridge:

'Cause I've been beaten and bleeding on the ground
My heart is broken, silence my only sound.
I've been shouting but no one hears my screams.
If you can hear me, then set me free

'Cause I'm falling in your arms
Falling in your arms
Falling in your arms
Falling in your arms
Falling in your arms
Falling, Falling in your arms

Chorus:

'Cause I need a hero that can save my soul
'Cause I'm falling faster and I'm losing control
The time is ticking 'til I'm too far under Won't you come in and resurrect me?
