I've been giving this a lot of thought lately, and this is what I came up with...I hope you like it...you fucking fake...

Betrayed yourself again...when is it going to end...
A hidden waiting seen inside your brains,
I only hope you know, there's nowhere you can go,
A soft and sensual look into my world...
But it's alright, it's ok...you just run, you go away...oh yeah...

And so you see a light, you think that you can fight...a glorious escape away into the twilight...
Cause When You look at me, I'm really what you see...

But it's alright, it's ok...you just run, you run
away...
But it's alright, it's ok...you just run...you run
away...
Oh yeah...

You can't run from me...I'm in your dreams and all around of you...I'm in you...I am you...
