Dream of fragrant flowered nights
Of passionate love and sweet delights
Such wishful moments
In my life to say

I lie within my mind
Each day and every night
Could search my whole life through
And never find another you

I got secret passion for you
And it's burning out my heart and soul

Days are passing by eventually
Maybe my chance of a lifetime
Reduced to nothing

But the more I thought of
What I might have had,
But still I know
I will never find another you

I got secret passion for you
And it's burning out my heart and soul

Could you stay in my dreams
If you can't be real
While I sleep forever
In your arms

Hold me, hold me,
Don't let go

I got secret passion for you
And it's burning out my heart and soul
