Gimme some time to waste my calling shouldn't take long to shaft, if I'm balling Then we'll get back to bitching in stitches and giving the man what he wants with our middle digits
and when we get around to trampling the temple all smoky eyelashes and well-selected samples will the guilt we know is there grow out in the roots of our hair or simmer back down they don't know my natural color's brown We'll march a solemn way leaving our masters in flames
"Your jury is me," we say.

High road ain't my road
lost and you're a loser
High road ain't my road
life's a bitch, and bitch I will abuse her.

So it's high time we made up our minds about the shining walk our asses backwards instead of just whining and when my bottle blonde starts carving the barber do I really feel my wit's got any sharper?
Hell yeah I will Hell yeah I did
Who you talking at, you just a smart-ass kid.
I'll beat it out of you....

High road ain't my road
lost and you're a loser
high road ain't my road
life's a bitch, and bitch I will abuse her
