It's laid out now before you
We almost seem to fall through
My sole regret is not filling you up before we left
Now we're on the precipice

God damn, listen to me

You should break now
But you say that you wont and you can't, so you dont
I'll shed this shroud, I ain't sellin you out
You could break down
But i say that you wont and i cant, so you don't
I'll put it down, I ain't runnin you out

Now that i've got you heating
Consequences come with cheating
Oh, my sole regret is not filling you up before we left
Hey, settle down and take a breath

God damn, huh, give it to me

I pictured it this way
The one to take me is you, or so I pray
And I'm lifted to the sound

You should break now
But you say that you wont and you can't, so you dont
I'll shed this shroud, I ain't sellin you out
You could break down
But i say that you wont and i cant, so you don't
I'll put it down, I ain't runnin you out

I pictured it this way
The one to take me is you, or so I pray
And I'm lifted to the sound
Come on
