VERSE:

God I have been here before,
When I felt like I couldn't take life anymore.
I cannot find my way or the strength to fight another day, God I'm losing it.
Feels like I cannot pass through this

CHORUS:

So won't you to fix it like you did before,
you're God, you're the God of the encore.
God I can count on you you're God like I did before you're God do it again.

VERSE:

This is not the first time that I've been afraid
And I ask myself how did I get back to this place
But I refuse to stay right here and live a life that's full

God I need You now
Only you can bring me out of this

So won't you fix it like you did before,
you're God, you're the God of the encore
God I can count on you you're God like I did before you're God
