(Les Holroyd)

we can't all be right
we can't all be wrong
it's a long journey
we travel on
gypsies of the night
riders of the storm
though it's heartbreaking we must go on
wrong place
wrong face
somewhere on the road
keep playing
and saying
welcome to the show
those who laugh the first must cry later they say as the stage curtain
brings on the girls
and they surely do well for the politicians sell them on t.v. today
makes me uncertain
of who runs the world
wrong place
wrong fac e
somewhere on the road
keep playing
and saying
welcome to the show
my friends, all the trends that have gone
are as one
in the minds of today with their eyes open
they can't see the signs and the moment belongs to the video songs
leading now
here at all
and the fools talking

the blind lead the blind
wrong place
wrong face
keep playing
and saying
we started something now we can't get away from it all
