I'm having a notion, it's a strange, the strangest emotion

I'm all wrapped up with my head in the clouds
The sweet child thinks he doesn't deserve me
Well, I'm not that proud

Well, I'd walk for miles to see that handsome face
To be with you, baby, I'd go anyplace

So you say that you ain't got money, well, I don't care
'Cause I'm so in love with you, honey
What I got I'll share

Take me by the hand
Help me move my mountains aside
Help me to understand because love is stronger than
It'll serve you longer than pride

Now father lend me your strength
I know you think I'm weak but I'm not ashamed
'Cause I'm in love and I'll tell you it's real
I may be young but I know how I feel

So you think he's gonna up and leave me, I disagree
He said that he'd give up the world just to please me
And care for me and

Take me by the hand
Help me move my mountains aside
And help me to understand because love is stronger than
It'll serve you longer than pride

When I first looked in his eyes
I felt this chemistry much to my surprise
Here's a man full of beauty and free of greed
And I will stand by him 'cause he's all that I need

The sweet child thinks he doesn't deserve me
Well, I'm not proud, proud
Said it once but I think he heard me
So I'll say it out loud

Take me by the hand
Help me to move my mountains aside
Help me to understand because love is stronger than
It'll serve you longer than pride

Take me by the hand
Help me to move my mountains aside
Help me to understand because love is not stronger
than
And it'll serve you longer than pride
