Schon es sieht nach Regen aus

Now I have burned the skies for you
Now I have drowned the world for you
How could I know you earth and sky

Now life is death and light is dark
My sins have left their precious mark
Again I've lost my only one

I have left you cold

The shadows won if truth be told
Once you leave for good
I let myself drown

Lass mich deine Träne weinen
Lass mich nur im Dunkeln schreien
Nie und nimmer tot gemacht
Keine herz und immer nacht

The shadows haunt me to my broken glass bed
