Intro:

As we walk through the shadow in the valley of death //
no matter how them a try, no me nah lose me head //
LIFE ME A GO LIVE IT, LIVE IT //
LIFE ME A GO LIVE IT, LIVE IT //

Verse 1:

Look, you already know what is coming up // when you feel that chill, getting cold though the sun is up // ground shaking when I show up with a hunger that'll // show 'em, when they slip up I'll be going for their jugulars //

no chrome rims, no jewels on my neck // just a die hard, lion-hearted dude on that next shit // two middlefingers to their rules, like a rebel // every record's getting shattered, attitude's heavy metal // (uh...)

let 'em run, I'm 'bout to hit 'em with that cutthroat //
Jack the Ripper shit and spit that I don't give a fuck-flow
these wack rappers, man, I ship 'em by the truckload // they ain't never smuggled no coke, but their stuff blowsss // (Get 'em...)

and for those pretending to care // that put all their effort in gossip and wouldn't lend me a hand //
keep talking, I don't need you amateurs help // I've got these pussies on lock like a chastity belt. Let's go... //

Chorus:

'Cause I'm a warrior, no me never giving up //
no me stay firm on the way to the top // me burn fiyah all day, non-top // right until the beat drops //

'Cause I'm a warrior // with a hunger to rise //

the whole world is mine //
THIS IS MY LIFE... //

Verse 2:

You can keep throwing bricks inside your glasshouse // hating everybody, talking shit until you pass out // and I'm spit until rid of every last doubt // and haters hear my shit and look like Britney when she spazzed out //

see everytime I'm in their town they're like "Where is he?!" //
until the one they all feared would appear swiftly // about to take over this world they wouldn't share with me // watch me do it like Timothy Treadwell - bare (bear) with
me //

always looking for a better way // sticking to my Guns, throwing Roses, running through that November Rain // thought I outgrew it, the feeling just never went away // Almost Famous, now all that's missing is Penny Lane // tell her I'll do what I can to make it happen and // once I make it there I swear I'm never going back again

even if I've got to work my fingers to the bone //
every day I'll be swinging for the throne... //

Chorus.

Verse 3:

See me walking through the fire with my chin high // still navigate through bullettrains with my wings wide // and if you ever thought I'd quit you better think twice //
I'll finish the song, then I'm gone 'fore the ink dries... //

Chorus.
